

November 18, 2015

The day started around noon with the Inter Service Club Luncheon at Park Place. We had a table for eight seating ten, elbow to elbow and hip to hip. Mike Marxer dropped a roll and we were packed so tight the damn thing couldn't find an opening to roll off the table. Adrienne was our volunteer of the year and no matter how hard we rooted for her a volunteer from another club won the top honors (I think the fix was in, those Vegas bookmakers get their fingers in everything).

A hearty "Well Done" to Adrienne, her list of accomplishments were very impressive and in our hearts she's "Volunteer of the Year" (I think she might have swung the vote if she'd included her adventures at "Band Camp")

At our regular meeting that evening the turnout was light, which was to be expected with two meetings in the same day. Funny thing was, all but one of the members that attended the Luncheon showed up for the regular meeting. Wonder were all the other members were...

This Wednesday we have Festival of Trees at 10 am and no regular meeting in the evening. Its Thanksgiving eve and our members will be home cooking and cleaning. (If you do sneak out, there is a roundtable in the K of C lounge).

The invitations are out for the Christmas Party on December 9th at the Henry. Call in your RSVP or sign the sheet at the treasures desk on the 2nd, don't make us call you, cause we will. This is when the Peanut Trophies will be awarded.

On the 2nd we have a regular meeting with the Salvation Army Brass Band. If you've never heard a brass band in a small room your in for a real treat. The band plays old time favorites till we cough up enough money to make them stop, then they play a couple more just to make us cry. This is the one where you need to bring your check book and some premium ear protection. A Board of Directors meeting will follow the regular meeting.

December 16th we make sandwiches and bag lunches for the NOAH project and Thursday morning we travel downtown to hand them out. If you have any new or gently used clothing you want to get rid of bring it along, it's a long cold winter on Woodward Avenue.

Bell ringing will be on December 19th at Fairlane Shopping Center and we will have a sign up sheet on the 2nd. We ring at three doors from 10 am to 6 pm, 2 hour shifts.

Never go to a doctor whose office plants have died.
