

February 8, 2017

Twass' only the 8th of the month but the ladies of the club had decorated the entire place for Valentine's Day, a holiday that seems to mean a whole lot more to a women than to a man (or at least an old man). We had heart shaped candy and pink cupcakes all over the place. Every time somebody walked by Patricia or Renea they got a sticky red heart slapped somewhere on their body. I found them on my shoulder, my arm my leg and my foot. I was afraid to look in my underwear. (Just kidding, me wear underwear?) I'm just glad we didn't have to sing Barbara Streisand ballads and watch "Sleepless in Seattle".

Linda had purposely misplaced the bell and gavel so she could use a wine glass and spoon, just like a wedding reception. Every time she rang the glass Paul Goerke tried to kiss Mike Marxer. We seemed to have a good guest speaker that knew what she was talking about but I couldn't tell cause I had one of those little candy hearts stuck in my ear.

Hats off to Adrienne who not only brought her boss Kevin for dinner but sprung for Little League after the meeting. In the UAW when you wanted to impress your boss you'd take him to a nasty strip joint and spring for a lap dance, I guess it's different in the food service industry.

Deepest sympathy to Ted Daykin on the passing of his wife Prill. Ted was a regular attendee every single week until he got sick a couple years ago and both Ted and Prill never missed an installation or Christmas party. There is a gathering for family and friends at 10:00 am followed by a Memorial Service on Saturday, February 18th at 11:00 am at First Presbyterian Church of Dearborn, 600 North Brady Street.

As most of you probably already know this week we will be at the Hemlock Cabin, in Hemlock Park on Hemlock Avenue in East Dearborn. Adrienne and Wes will be cooking the burgers and brats, there's beans and tator salad and apparently lots of people are bringing desert. As always, an open bar will be included with dinner. The Mayor and the Police Chief both have said they will drop by to say a few words and answer a few questions and if things get slow Richard has agreed to do a short presentation of Gone With The Wind on his finger puppets. We will also be inducting our newest member, Ethan Terrell into the Club so don't forget your jackal fat and feathers. Maybe we can get the ladies to do shots like they did at last week's Little League, I know after 3 drinks my wife always wants to kick my ass and go shopping.

Upcoming Events:

February 15th – Hemlock Cabin, Booze, burgers and beans, a dangerous combination for a small cabin with an open fire.

February 22nd – Movie Night at Kiwanis. I have no idea what this is all about but I'm hoping it's some of those old super 8 black & white movies they used to show in the back room of the Cherry Hill Barber Shop after closing.

February 29th Or March 1st (Is it leap year?) – Frank Purrington presents a slide show on western Michigan Oriental Body Massages; you don't want to miss this one. (Bring your own raincoat)

You can lead a mackerel to water but you have to be fast or they'll die.

*Love & Kisses
Babydoll*
